The presentation is intended for those who are divorced and remarried or married outside the Church and who wish to return to the sacraments. The session will offer a brief explanation of the how and why of the Church's respect for every marriage and the processes for establishing that a failed marriage was in reality never what Christ intended marriage to be. The session will also explain the specific steps for moving forward with addressing a failed marriage with the help of the Church. The day is free with no pre-registration required. Sacred Heart Church is at 2508 Appleby Sand Road in Nacogdoches.
