Corpus Christi Procession

FEAST OF THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

SUNDAY - JUNE 18

Next Sunday we will have a Eucharistic procession around the church property after Mass for the Solemnity of Corpus Christi. Bishop Strickland has asked every parish to establish the practice of a significant procession for the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, commonly referred to as Corpus Christi Sunday. The purpose of such processions is to focus on the presence of Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. Those who have celebrated their first Communion this year are invited to be in the procession close to the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Dear Members of St. John,

When we here at St. John the Evangelist in Enterprise, Alabama, saw the news about the tornado we wanted to help. We experienced a tornado 10 years ago and had to rebuild our church. Enclosed you will find a check for $3000 from our parishioners. We hope this will help you to rebuild your Church.
Debra Morgan, Secretary (Enterprise, AL)

In the love that surrounds you . . . may you find strength and peace.
